Try Adams Fruit on Barnard Avenue in Coal Aston.

Not only are they greengrocers, who incidentally, tell you where the items are from and try to source local produce, but they do Eco refills of laundry liquid and fabric conditioner etc.

They also sell oats, pulses, dried fruit, nuts, loose leaf tea. Take along your own containers and they will weigh out however much you want.

Note they are closed on Mondays.

I'm planning a trip to the sea side next year, (18th July 2020)

I will put a list in the porch with 4 places for people to choose where they'd like to go (Scarborough, Filey, Whitby and Bridlington). If people who'd like to go, fill in their preferred location, I'll take the next step from there.

I know this is early, but I'd really like it to be successful as I haven't organised anything on this scale before!

Thanks! Liz.

Proposed Art Group

I am considering setting up an Art Group here for those attending church who would like to "have a go".

I am not an art teacher and do not have a specific skill but enjoy dabbling and inspiring others to experiment and discover hidden talents. I would plan sessions that would cover a range of mediums such as acrylic, watercolour, pastel, charcoal and collage.

No previous experience is necessary but you would need to provide your own materials. I would have a pot for £2 per session in order to be able to set up some resources that could be shared.

At this stage I am just gauging interest.
I think 12 would be a maximum membership and it would be on a Wednesday afternoon, fortnightly, from 2.00 until 4.00 pm starting in September.

If you are interested please email me at sheelagh11.webster@tiscali.co.uk or catch me at church.

Once I know if there is sufficient interest, I will let people know if it will go ahead.
